THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. "The Soviet-Rumanian enterprise Sovromtransport controls both sea and river shipping. It also took over the planes formerly owned by TARS and operates, in general, all other means of Rumanian transportation.
2. "The central offices of Sovromtransport are located at 1. Strada Povernei, Bucharest. The offices of the Rumanian Maritime Service, SMR, are in the same building, but these are, of course, only the offices open to clients. Top Soviet and Rumanian shipping executives, such as Eydokimov and Korovichev [see below] are almost never seen in these offices.
3. "The Director General of Sovromtransport is a Soviet, as are the directors of all other joint Soviet-Rumanian enterprises. He is (fau) Eydokimov. He resides in Bucharest and has been in Rumania for several years.
4. "The Director of Water Transportation, both sea and inland traffic, is also a Soviet, (fau) Korovichev. He is a good shipping man but only served as an ordinary seaman prior to coming to Rumania. He lives in Bucharest but makes frequent inspection trips to Constanta. It is said that his headquarters will be transferred to Constanta in the near future.
5. "The Sovromtransport officials and employees in the port of Constanta include the following persons:
 - (a) (fau) Moruzov - Sovromtransport Director for the port of Constanta. A Soviet. Prior to coming to Rumania he was one of the top Soviet executives at the GANZ factory in Budapest, Hungary.

- (d) (fnu) Maugus - An inspector for Sovromtransport in Constanta. A former officer of the Royal Rumanian Marine. Commanded the 'Basarabia', which was taken over by the Soviets in 1945 and is now called the 'Ukraina'.
- (e) (fnu) Maracineanu - An instructor at the Naval School in Constanta. Former commander of the merchant vessel 'Transylvania', which was taken over by Sovromtransport.
